EUROMALT Privacy Policy

EUROMALT is an international association registered under Belgian law. Its mission is to represent the interests of the trade in cereals, rice, feedstuffs, oilseeds, olive oil, oils and fats and agrosupply at European and international level. EUROMALT provides this information site to keep our members and other visitors informed about our activities and achievements.

EUROMALT collects and processes personal data in accordance with the provisions of the European Union General Data Protection Regulation (EU GDPR).

Collection of personal data

By “personal data”, we mean any information regarding any identified or identifiable person.

We do not process ‘sensitive’ data such as, but not limited to, race or ethnicity, political opinions, religious or philosophical convictions, your life and/or sexual orientation or your health.

We may collect or obtain Personal data about you from the following sources:

- Information you give us: we collect personal data you provide us when you contact us via email or telephone, or by receiving your business card, or subscribe to our newsletter, or register to or attend one of our events. This information might include your name, address, email address, phone number and any other information relevant to the event or service that you are registering for.
- We may also collect pictures or video footage taken during events organised by or on behalf of EUROMALT that you attend or have attended.
- We may collect information about you visiting our website and how you use it. This may include your IP address, geographical location, device information, browser type, referral source, length of visit, operating system, number of page views and similar information. This information may be collected by a third-party website analytics service provider on our behalf and/or may be collected using cookies.
- We may collect or obtain personal data that you choose to make public.

Categories of personal data

We may process the following categories of personal data about you:

- Personal details: given name(s) and preferred name
- Contact details: business correspondence address, telephone number and email address
- Registration and attendance records: details of events organised by or on behalf of EUROMALT that you have attended
- Data relating to our sites: device type; operating system; browser type; browser settings; IP address; language settings; dates and times of connecting to a Site; username; password; security login details; usage data; aggregate statistical information.

- Views and opinions: any views and opinions that you choose to send to us, or publicly post about us on social media platforms.
- Photograph and video footage: pictures or video footage taken during events organised by, or on behalf of EUROMALT that you have attended.

How we use your data

1. Because it serves a legitimate interest

We may use your information where there is a legitimate reason to do so. For example, we may use your information where it would help achieve our EUROMALT’s objectives or to facilitate a benefit to you.

Our legitimate interests in processing personal data include:

- to provide you information about the trade in cereals, rice, feedstuffs, oilseeds, olive oil, oils and fats and agrosupply.
- to communicate effectively with you via email, telephone or post, including to fulfil your requests
- to invite you to events or seminars organised by, or on behalf of EUROMALT that might interest you
- to collect statistics about our websites’ usage and effectiveness through the use of various technologies.

2. Because you provide us your consent

There are some activities where we process personal data with your consent:

When we process photographs or video footage taken during one of our events.

3. Because we have a legal obligation

Sharing your personal data

EUROMALT will not sell, hire out or share your personal data with any third parties unless:

- Where we are legally required to do so
- When you provide prior consent

We ensure that any third party, to whom we transfer your personal data to, processes it, as we do, with the highest standard of security, and with every necessary safeguard to protect your personal data.
Protect and keep your personal data

EUROMALT is committed to employ the appropriate technical security measures and procedures to protect your personal information and ensure that unauthorised persons do not access it.

Information storage is on secure computers in a secured information centre and information is encrypted wherever possible. Our security procedures also provide that we may request proof of identification before we will release personal information to you. We undergo periodic reviews of our security policies and procedures to ensure that EUROMALT systems are secure and protected.

EUROMALT shall only store your personal data for the period necessary to achieve and fulfil the purposes in question as described in this privacy disclaimer.

Exercising your rights

You have the following rights with regard to the personal data that we process:

• The Right to Access and Transfer Data:

You have the right to access all personal data concerning you. You have the right to receive confirmation as to whether your personal data is or is not being processed, and to be informed of the purposes for which we process it, the type of data that is processed, the persons and entities who receive the data, and how long your data is stored. You also have the right to receive a copy of the personal data that you have provided, and to send it (or ask us to send it) to another entity responsible for processing personal data.

• The Right to Correct/Delete Data - The Right to Be Forgotten

You have the right to ask for data concerning you to be corrected if you realise that it is inaccurate or incomplete. You also have the right to ask for your personal data to be deleted if it is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected. If you gave us consent to process your personal data, you have the right to withdraw this permission at any time.

• The Right to Limit Data Processing

You have the right to require us to limit the processing of your data: (i) when you contest the accuracy of the data; (ii) when you object to the data being deleted and demand instead that it be used in a limited fashion; or (iii) when we no longer need to process your data, but you still require it for the purposes of establishing, exercising, or defending legal claims.

You can exercise these rights by contacting us using our contact details mentioned at the end of this policy.
