

Malt, a gift of nature

Flora Dewar

Director Trade & Logistics

Flora Dewar is the Director Trade & Logistics of COCERAL, EUROMALT and UNISTOCK Europe, which she joined in October 2018.

She manages sector-relevant EU policy issues, dealing with, among others, International Trade and Market Access, Logistics of Grain Transport and Deforestation.

Prior to her involvement in the grain and oilseed trade, she worked for ten years at the European Dairy Association, representing the milk processing industry in Europe.

Bilingual French-English, she holds a bachelor's degree in mathematics and Master's degree in European Policy from the University of Rennes and the University of Bretagne Occidentale, Brest, France.